LETTERS FROM TWO STATES.

NEW LONDON COUNTY.

NORTH STONINGTON. Bayard D. York to Be Principal of

Pierson Academy-Visitors' Night at

Miss Louise Hewitt, who has been spending the winter and spring in Westerly, has returned to her home in this cillage.

this village.

Herbert E. Maine and Mrs. B. F. Arnold of Providence have been in town this week, visiting their stater, Miss Dora Thompson Maine.

Mrs. N. G. Edgecomb, who has been to be a control of the control of t seriously ill is insproving.

Mrs. William P. Babcock has been spending the week with friends in Norwich.

Miss Edna Palmer of Pendleton Hill is visiting her cousins here

Promotion for Bayard D. York Prometion for Bayard D. York.

Bayard D. York, son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. York of this town, who has been teaching in Phillips academy, Andover, Mass., will next fall becomes principal of Pierson academy, at Walla Walla, in the state of Wshington, the academy in connection with Whitman college.

The Wheeler school presented the play, Mr. Bob, in the Wheeler library,
Friday evening.

VISITORS' NIGHT.

Sixty-two at Grange Meeting-Enter taining Programme Provided.

The regular meeting of North Ston-ington grange was held on May 14. The meeting was observed as Visitors' night, and by special invitation was in charge of Stonington grange. One candidate was obligated in the third and fourth degrees. Three applica-tions for membership were received and referred to the committee on candidates. An excellent programme candidates. An excellent programme was presented by Stonington grange. A few being absent their places were acceptably filed by other members of their grange. Each number was thoroughly en-

Each number was theroughly enjoyed and was received with a marked degree of appreciation and applause. The programme follows:

Instrumental duet, Over Hill and Dale, Miss Leah Connell, Miss Florence Hewitt; talk on Co-operation, A. G. Wheeler, master of Stonington grange; vocal solo, Seth N. Williams; What I Saw in the Green Mountains, on Lake Champlain and in Ausable Chasm, Mrs. Fannie Williams; reading, When My Wife Goes Away, Joseph Noyes; Talk on a Southern Trip, Dr. Charles O. Maine; original poem, The Birds' Return, Miss Grace D. Wheeler; instrumental solo, Spinning Song, Miss Leah Connell; illustrated song, in three parts, Summer Show-Wheeler; instruments; solo, Spinning Song, Miss Leah Connell; illustrated song, in three parts, Summer Shower, song by Mrs. T. A. Mitten, tableaux by Mr. and Mrs. Cifford Stewart. Musical tableaux: Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean, Mrs. T. A. Mitten; Sweet Violets, Miss Emeline Palmer; Comin' Thro' the Rye, Miss Leah Connell, Amos Hewitt; Wearing of the Green, Mrs. Gertrude Latham; The Giri I Left Behind Me, Miss Florence Hewitt, Rev, G. B. Spaulding, Jr.; Tired, so Tired! Mrs. Eliza Noyes; Old Oaksen Bucket, Miss Leah Connell, T. A. Mitten; The Merxy Widow, Mrs. Charles S. Noyes, Jr.; Red Wing, Miss Florence Hewitt; The Last Rose of Summer, Mrs. Cyrus Stewart; Home, Sweet Home, Dr. C. O. Maine, Mrs. Frances C. Dixon, Miss Grace D. Wheeler, T. A. Mitten and Miss Doris Mitten.

Mrs. Raiph C. Wheeler was accompanist. A vote of thanks was given panist, A vote of thanks was given Stonington grange for the interest-ing entertainment furnished. Sixty-ing entertainment furnished. Sixtytwo visitors were present, representing Stonington, Mystic, Hope Valley, Bozrah and Colchester granges.

The ladies of North Stonington grange furnished a collation of sandwiches, cake and ice cream, which was enjoyed by all. The next regular meeting will be held on June 11 and observed as Children's night.

County Meeting With Salam Grange County Meeting With Salem Grange.

meeting will be held with Salem

New R. F. D. Route. The R. F. D. route will start July first and will be greatly appreciated by the rural inhabitants of the town.

SALEM.

Congregational Sunday School Plans for Children's Day-Colchester Pastor at Baptist Church-Many Attend Austion.

Regular services were conducted in Regular services were conducted in the Congregational church Sunday morning and svening by the pastor, Miss Millen. The Sunday school was in charge of the assistant superirtendent, Mrs. F. R. Balley, who conducted an interesting session. Plans were made for Children's day exercises to be held June 13. Supt. Henry A. Rogers was detained at home because of the filness of his wife.

the illness of his wife.

A service of unusual interest was conducted in the Baptist church Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Rev. B. D. Remington, pastor of the Colchester Baptist church, delivered an earnest and dequent sarroon.

and eloquent sermon.

Miss Amy E. Rix, who has been the guest of friends in New London the past week, returned Tuesday to the home of her aunt, Mrs. William Darling. C. E. Staples of Colchester was in town on Tuesday.

The ladies of the Congregational church met to clean the parsonage on Wednesday.

The auction held at the farm of G.
Orrin Avery on Tuesday brought a large crowd of farmers and cattle buyers to town.

Selectman and Mrs. E. L. Latimer and daughter Lois were recent guests at Crystal Spring farm. Edgar Standish spent Monday at the Edgar Standish spent Monday at the home of his parents in Westchester. Miss Anabel Avery has returned from a visit with friends in Bozrah. Mrs. Sydney A. Dolbeare spent several days this week with relatives in New London.

Mrs. E. L. Latimer and daughter. Miss Lois, are guests of relatives in Hamburg.

Hamburg.

A trained nurse is in attendance upon Mrs. Henry Rogers, who is ill with measles.

Mrs. F. L. Fletcher was a recent guest of friends in Westchester and guest of friends in Westchester and Colchester. Lawrence Beebe was the mest of Clyde Raymond one day this week. State Agent Visits Schools.

State Agent Visits Schools.

8. P. Willard of Colchester, agent of the state board of education, was in town last week visiting schools.

J. F. Rogers and Carl Rogers were callers in Colchester recently.

F. B. Willoughby of Colchester was in town during the week.

Mrs. M. R. Siegfried, who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. F. P. Balley, is now with her daughter, Mrs. C. S. Ray, at Crystal Spring farm.

HANOVER.

One Hundred and Thirty Present at Conference—Grave of Benjamir Franklin's Niece in Old Ceme y.

At the church conference this week upwards of 130 guests from fourteen parishes were entertained by the Ladles' guild. The decorations of dogwood blossoms, the vocal solo by Mrs. Frank Smith and the violin obligato by Rev. Mr. MacLane were all enjoyed.

The attention of

The attention of visitors was called to the burni place in the old cometery of a nicce of Renjamin Franklin, Mrs.

Ann Harris, wife of Thomas Fuller.

She died in 1782.

Mrs. Stewart has returned from the hospital much improved in health.

Much progress has been made in altering the grade at the Branch crossing, where a bridge of concrete will be built over the railway.

The town's oldest resident, James Vickridgs, Erwin Hart of Windham and Miss Clara Kellogg were present on Wednesday.

VOLUNTOWN.

Foresters Vote to Decorate Graves of Deceased Members-Delegate Mc-

Miss Cleo Herbert of the Academy of the Holy Family at Baltic spent the week end at the home of her parents, week end at the home of her parents,

Mr. and Mrs. John Herbert.
The Rev. J. V. E. Belanger returned on Friday after a visit of several days to Springfield, Mass.
Mrs. Mary McDonald of Pawtucket,
R. I., was a recent visitor at the home of her son, Thomas McDonald.
Thomas McDonald returned Friday after a stay of several days in Danbury, where he attended the Foresters' convention as delegate from Court Liberty.

Foresters to Decorate Graves.

Foresters to Decorate Graves. On Monday evening at a meeting of Court Liberty, No. 132, F. of A., it was voted to decorate the graves of deceased members on Memorial day, Monday, May 31st. Services will be held in the hall at 3 s. m. It was also voted to escort Byron D. Smith post, G. A. R., in their Memorial day parade. The committee in charge of the affair are Charles E. Maine, Thomas McDonald, Ferdinand Dupont and Aime Bergeron.

Report of State Convention. An interesting report of the doings of the Danbury convention was read by Delegate McDonald, the report showing the Foresters of America to be the largest fraternal order in the state of Connecticut, with a membership of nearly $1,000, and very sound financially.

Good Entertainment at Pioture Thea

The Willcox Moving Picture company gave their regular weekly entertainment in Union hall Tuesday evening to a fair sized audience. Several reels of new films were shown, the features being the drama A Ranchman's Love, The Burning Ship, while the comedy pictures were A Summer Idyll and How Jones Saw the Carnival. Miss Jennic Coyle sam her new song very sweetly and had to repeat it several times. All in attendance were pleased with the entertainment. The Willcox Moving Picture company the entertainment.

Brief Locals. Andrew Apel of Manchester, Connis the guest of friends in town. Mr Apel was a former resident of Volun-

Thursday, the Feast of the Ascen Thursday, the Feast of the Ascension, masses were celebrated in St. Thomas' church at 5 a.m. and 7 a.m., with vespers in the evening.

On Friday evening a novena or nine days' prayer was commenced at St. Thomas' church and will continue until the Feast of Pentecost.

The Voluntown ball team went to Pachaug on Saturday and was defeated by the score of 25 to 6.

NIANTIC.

Dr. C. D. Usher to Speak at Congre gational Church-News from Village and Grove.

Dr. C. D. Usher will speak in the Dr. C. D. Usher will speak in the Congregational church on Sunday at 10.45 a.m. Dr. Usher has been a missionary under the American Board in Turkey for a number of years, is thoroughly acquainted with the conditions prevailing there at this time.

Ernest Spencer of Salem was visiting relatives in the village recently.

Inex Spencer of New London spent Tuesday with her mother, Mrs. A. E. Spencer.

Spencer.
Mrs. F. W. James is occupying the Beckwith cottage in Pine Grove for S. Dewey of New London was in Niantle Wednesday.

George F. Griswold was in New London Wednesday.

Frank M. Fuller has returned to his business in Providence.

Miss Grace Merry is making a lengthy visit with relatives in Willi-

Herbert Reed is in New York for a few days.

Mrs. T. R. Dawley has moved to the tenement over the postoffice, having vacated the Davis house in Lincoln

Schofield Property Sold.

The property belonging to the late Elmira Mary Miller of Middletown.

W. J. Manwaring, conductor on the New Haven road, spent Tuesday with relatives at the Norman cottage in Cottage Interests. Miss Nellie M. Webster, who has been passing the winter in Florida, has returned and opened her cottage in Pine Grove.

Mrs. E. E. Darrow is having a wire fence built enclosing her property at grove. frs. George Matthews of Hartford is putting her cottage in order for the Sanford cottage in Laurel street. W. G. Phyall is still making improvements on the interior of the Morton house. MOHEGAN.

Deer So Tame They Invade Dooryards -Memorial Service Sunday.

C. A. Rudd, who has finished a recent contract in Lebanon, was a Sun-day visitor in Mohegan.

G. R. Sanders was called to Laurel Hill on a business transaction a few days since.

G. W. Jacks shows improvement after a sick spell.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cook are entertoining their daughter amelia of Hart-

Farmers are anticipating damage from deer this season. They are nu-merous and very tame, coming near the houses and lying down in the back

Miss Lizzle Hunter is in Mystic, the guest of her sister, Mrs. D. Davis. Guests at Cosey Corner over Sun-day were J. P. Sanders and Otis Beebe of Norwich. Herold Germain has returned from several days visit with friends in Noank.

Memorial Service on the 23d. Sunday, the 23d, there will be a memorial service at the church. G. A. R. men from Norwich and New London are expected to be present. The crincipal speakers are Miss Lillian Daniels of New London and H. E. Anderson of Norwich. There will be special music.

GARDNER LAKE.

Stepped on Nail, Injuring Foot-Personal Items.

Miss Ethel Boynton of this place and Miss Nettle Gridley of Montville are spending this week in Boston. During their stay they have visited Bonker Hill and Lexington and other places of historio interest.

Mrs. Sidney A. Dolbeare visited relatives in New London Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiffred A. White were guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Dolbeare of Piain Hill a few days ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Arad Manning, Miss

Anna Park and Miss Edith Matthews of Yantip called on local friends Sunday.

Clarence Bailey, Jr., while barefooted the other day, stepped on a nail, plercing his foot, causing a painful wound. A number from around here attended Orrin Avery's suction.

LEDYARD.

Poultry Night at the Grange.

Ledyard grange held its regular meeting in the town hall on Saturday evening. This was poultry night and Mrs. Lizzie Colver, the lecturer, had the maic members bring sandwiches and two boiled eggs and the ladies something made with eggs. Names of different kinds of poultry were written on a piece of paper and then cut in two; the drawings were made by the ladies and gentlemen and pieces matched. The parties lunched together. It was a novel and interesting entertainment. Billings T. Avery had charge of the question box and paper on poultry were read by Leon Culver, Tracy Smith, B. T. Avery, Miss Fannie Lamb and Mrs. Lizzie Colver. Mrs. W. F. White read a paper on flowers. The music was good, with Miss Lillian Gallup at the organ and Mr. Korn playing the violin. General News.

A good-sized audience listened to Rev. W. F. White on Sunday morning. His subject was "Thronging Christ, Touching Christ."

Four persons from this place united with the Preston City Baptist church on Sunday.

with the Presion City Baptist cauren on Sunday.

The last of a series of cottage prayer meetings which have been held at different houses during the winter held at the parsonage on Tuesday evening. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. White, assisted by Rev. N. B. Prindle of Preston City. About forty were present. The meetings orty were present. The meetings ave been very helpful. Mr. Prindle, who had charge of the singing, was accompanied by a quartette from Preston City: Allen B. Burdick, Ernest N. Main, Charles Zabriski and Clarnce Robins.

Burglary at Reynolds Homestead. The Reynolds homestead, which is owned by Edwin Reynolds of Providence, who occupies it part of the summer as does his sister that of Providence, was broken into early in April by some person or persons. An entrance was gained by breaking a window light. The house was not occupied at the time. Some things were stolen. Mr. Reynolds has placed on the public signpost a notice offering $50 reward for the capture of the guilty ones. Burglary at Reynolds Homestead.

Personals. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Story and Mrs. Arthur L. Story of Norwich were Saturday callers at Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Holdredge's. Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Morgan of Mystic were callers in town Sunday.

Miss Margaret Allen is visiting her aunt. Mrs. Henry Hellock of Wood Haven, N. Y.

Enos M. Gray spent Wednesday ight in Meriden Mrs. Russell Carlup was an over Sunday guest of Dwight Gallup's fam

MYSTIC.

Appraisers at Work On Dr. Barber's Estate-Temperance Rally-Tramps

Warned to Keep Away. Henry Chapman has been engaged as head gardener for Mrs. Cassie Ha-

The Stonington probate court has appointed Allen Avery and John H. Hoxle appraisers of the late O. M. Barber and they have about completed the inventory.

A barn at the lower end of Denison street has been moved on rollers to Industrial place.

A temperance rally at the Methodist.

A temperance rally at the Methodist hurch Sunday evening was largely at Mystic grange held an interesting meeting Thursday evening. No Welcome for Tramps

The Stonington selectmen posted offices about the village three weeks age notifying tramps that they were not needed and if found begging from the law would be enforced. Since then the travelers have teachers meeting in Putnam last Pri-given Mystic a wide berth. Before the day and visited over Sunday in Daniel-ections were posted tramps were as son. thick as hasty pudding.

BOZRAH

Grange Has Interesting Meeting-Topic: "Poultry."

Mrs. O. A. Bishop is spending the Mrs. S. G. Avery is visiting friends at Gales Ferry. Miss Alice A Bishop and Miss Maude G. Lathrop are visiting in orth Stonington.

Five deer were seen on the farm of Edwin C. Latthrop on Thursday, Harry Lathrop has finished load-ing a car with automobile spokes for a wheel company in Massachusetts. Topic Was Poultry. There was an attendance of twen-ty-five in the town hall Wednesday evening. The topic of the evening was Poultry. A paper written by C. J. Abell on poultry was read by Alice Bishop. Their experience with hens was told by Mrs John Stanton, Clifford and Harry Lathrop gave their experience with an incubator; George Simth told what his hens had done the smith told what his liens had done the past winter and also what he thought the best breed to keep. The master gave his advice as to the best cows to keep, and Mrs. Myron Smith recited "The Practical Man." A lunch of eggs, custards and cake was served. Friends of Mrs. Clarence Lathrop are sorry to learn of her lliness. Winton Robinson of Norwich is vis-which Rosinson of Norwich is vis-iting in Bosrah.

Mrs. Mary Maples, who has been spending a few days with Miss Chris-tina Johnson, has returned home.

YAWBUX VALLEY.

Miss Edna Palmer of Pendicion Hil has been spending a few cays with Arthur Chapman of Baltic was a ecent visitor at his uncle's. Miss Carrie Stedman spent a part last week with her sister at White

WINDHAM COUNTY.

WOODSTOCK.

Annual Memorial Sermon Will Be Preached by Rev. G. F. Waters-Missionary Tea-Death of Mrs. Erastus Blackmar.

Judge Clarence H. Child has recer in Greenwich, Conn.
Aifred F. Child and family have moved into their new summer home at Hillcrest.

The children of the district school are planning an entertainment to help pay the expense of putting drain pipe in the gutter in front of the school. Graves Will Be Decorated,

Graves Will Be Decorated.

The annual memorial sermon will be given by the Rev. G. F. Waters on Sunday, May 30, and the service of decorating the soldlers' graves will probably be that afternoon.

The Ladies' Benevolent society gave a missionary ten in the chapel Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. James and Miss Emma Spalding as hostesses. The topic was Dr. Grenfell's Work in Labration.

Rev. E. H. Smith to Socak.

Rev. E. H. Smith to Speak Friends of Rev. Edward Huntington Smith of China are looking forward Local News.

Gardner Richardson of the Independent, who has recently been to Panama, spent Sunday with his parcents. Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Richardson. Mrs. J. J. Williamson is visiting relatives in Moosup and Ekonk.

Mrs. Erastus Blackmar died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. K. Safford, Monday night, after a lingering iliness. She leaves three daughters, Mrs. L. H. Healey, Mrs. Justin Green, and Mrs. Safford. The funeral was held Thursday afternoon at her home, with burial in the cemetery by the Congregational church.

Mrs. Hamilton Holt and family have opened their cottage for the summer.

WINDHAM.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Eaton Will Visit Seattle Exposition-Notes of the Past Week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Yergason and Miss Yergason of Hartford were in town Tuesday. L. G. Frink is in New York this Noyes Allyn of Gales Ferry was at Henry Larrabee's on Sunday, Mrs. Margaret French of New York is at the Inn. Mrs. F. E. Guild has been in Putnam Mrs. F. E. Guid has been in Park and Boston this week. Mrs. Julis Marghetic and Mrs. R. G. Watrous were in Boston Tuesday. Mrs. Loeffler and children, of New London, are at Colonel W. S. Chap-

Mr. and Mrs. Gaulladet of Norwick were at the Inn on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Baker of New

Mr. and Mrs. James Baker of New London have taken rooms at M. A. Bates for the rest of the month.
Rev. W. S. Kelsey and family were in Boston over Sunday.
The Misses Johnson spent the day in Franklin Tuesday.
G. W. Peabody has just had a fine monument of Westerly granite placed on hie lot in the cemetery.
Mr. and Mrs. Horace Eaton started on a western trip Wednesday. They will be gone until the last of June and will visit the Seattle exposition.
Mr. and Mrs. Gardiner Greene and Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Woodard of Norwich were at the Inn on Wednesday, the guests of Mrs. Edward Johnson and Miss Isabella Thomas.
Miss Julia Swift is spending a few days with Mrs. C. R. Utley in Willimantic.

Rev. Walter Lanphear of Mansfield will preach at the Congregational church Sunday, in exchange with Rev.

Harry Grimes.

Mrs. Charles Larrabee and Miss Ma-rian Larrabee are spending Sunday in Boston.

PHOENIXVILLE.

Visitors During the Week-Bosses or Road Work Change Quarters.

Benjamin Lawton of Putnam was the guest of H. E. Lincoln over Sun-day. He is a student at the Putnam High school.

High school.

O. J. Atwood and son Ward were at Charles Downing's last Sunday. They came from South Manchester in Mr. Atwood's automobile.

Mrs. Dugan and her two children of Worcester are at W. A. Downing's for Mr. Faltin has moved with his fam-lly into the John Taylor house. Ellery Ethridge is entertaining his father, Martin Etheridge, for a few filery Etheridge has launched his motor boat, the Esther, on the pond here. It makes a big lot of noise for a small boat on a small pond. The bosses on the state road have changed their boarding place. They are boarding at the Eastford hotel

CHAPLIN.

Farmers to Receive Higher Prices fo Year's Wool Clip-General

News. Rev. H. M. Lawson of Union preached at the church Sunday and is to preach again next Sunday.

Mrs. Helen A. Witter of Hartford is visiting friends in town.

Miss Florence I. Hunt attended the teachers' meeting in Putnam last Fri-

The Ladies' Aid society met on Wed-nesday afternoon with Miss Jan-Farmers are pushing the planting with an increase acreage.

Farmers will obtain better prices this year for their wool. Some held over the last year clip rather than sell at the low price.

WESTMINSTER.

Visitors at Prayer Meeting-Fred Newton Digging Well.

Mrs. A. A. Smith of Leicester, Mass.

Mrs. A. A. Smith of Leicester, Mass., was the guest of the pastor, Rev. A. A. Smith, over the Sabbath.

Miss Hannah Greenman is spending a few weeks at her home here.

The prayer meeting Friday evening was quite well attended. There were several visitors present; among them were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin St. John and Mr. Kemp.of Howard Vailey, who gave interesting and helpful remarks. The subject was The Growing Kingdom—The Challenge of Our Cities.

There were over twenty persons attended the social Saturday afternoon, at the parsonage. at the parsonage.

Mrs. Edwin Edmond had charge of the meeting Sunday evening.

Fred Newton is digging a well near · WILSONVILLE.

Mrs. Joseph Baker and family of New Boston spent Saturday and Sun-day with her father and sisters. Mrs. Brightman, who recently Mrs. Brightman, who recently bought Merton Child's place, has late. bought Merton Child's place, has latele purchased a horse and cow.

Miss Anna Sherlock, who has been housekeeper for Mrs. Keegan, has left and returned to her home in Putnam. Miss Rose McEhan of Perry's returned with her for a short visit.

Miss Hattle Jennings was a Webster visitor one day last week.

Miss Hattle Jennings visited with her sister in New Boston last Friday. her sister in New Boston last Friday. Her niece, Miss Ethel Baker, re-turned with her for a few days' visit.

CLARK'S CORNERS.

Recent Guests in Local Homes.

Recent visitors at W. H. Carver's were Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Carver of Killingly, Mrs. F. R. Botham of Abing-ton, Mrs. Charles Kramer and child of Pockland, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Navins and childern were in Willimantic Wednesday.

Mr. Finch of Hartford was a weekod visitor in town. Mrs. Alfred Neff was in Hampton his week.

Mrs. Etts Hyde of Hartford was a week-end visitor at her cottage here.

Mrs. Charles Kramer and child returned to Rockland Saturday.

RAWSON.

Personal Mention of the Week.

Lyman Baker spent Sunday with Lyman Baker spent Sunday with his sister at Pomfret.

Phillips Brothers have the contract for furnishing the supplies for the bridge help of T. R. Foley & Co.

Dwight and Frank Phillips were Williamantle visitors on Saturday.

I. W. Hammond has rented the Weeks place, which is to be occupied by Frad Baker.

Roy Rowland was a Thread City caller on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Loring Greigs of Day
Thursday in Manchester.

State Policeman M. S. Louke spent the Prudence Gorden farm, two miles acut of the village.

Bird and Arbor day was observed at the village school. Trees were planted and the purchasers have moved to the farm.

C. D Whitford was in Providence Wednesday.

Rev. S. Thatcher was in Thompson Tuesday.

Rev. S. Thatcher was in Thompson Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weodward, Mr. and Mrs. Loring Greigs of Day
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weodward, Mr. the fiddle.—Chicago Daily News.

ville were recent visitors at James Greige, his brothers.

Mrs. Lucy Ide of Chaplin spent Sun-day with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Kimball.

John Hammond of Clark's Corners was in town on Sunday.

Fred Baker of North Windham is at his home for a few days.

CENTRAL VILLAGE.

Garrett-Maynard Wedding — Worsted Company Running with Two Shifts of Workers.

Mrs. Charles E. Barber has returnof from Worcester, where she been the guest of her sister.

Miss Davenport's Death. Miss Davenport's Death.

Many friends were shocked to learn of the sudden death of Miss Mary Davenport, which occurred at the Johnson home in Norwich early Thursday morning after about an hour's illness. Miss Davenport was well known here, where she resided until a short time before her death. Burial was in Willinantic cemetery.

Frank Barber of Exeter, R. I., has been the guest of his brother for a few days.

Asher R. Harrick's Funeral.

Asher R. Herrick's Funeral.

Asher R. Herrick's Funeral.

The funeral of Asher R. Herrick took place at his home on Main street Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock and was largely attended by relatives and friends. Rev. Asher H. Wilcox of Norwich and Rev. John Wheeler of Moosup officiated. The bearers were Albert C. Walker, Henry F. Walker, George R. Fowler and Fitch A. Carey. The choir sang Nearer, My God, to Thee, and Shall We Meet Beyond the River? The flowers were beautiful Burial was in Evergreen cometery.

The following from out of town attended: Mr. and Mrs. Asher Stark of Providence; Mrs. Frank Davidson and daughter, Oxford, Mass.; Mrs. Daniel Spaulding and daughter, Miss Grace, Mrs. Issac Niles, Mr. Reynolds, Danielson; Arthur Weaver, Everett, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. King, Yantie; Charles Weaver, Worcester; Mrs. Charles Spencer, Windham; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Spicer, Curtls Bushnell of North Scituate, R. I.

At W. C. T. U. Gonvention.

At W. C. T. U. Convention Mrs. E. H. Lillibridge, Mrs. August Holgerson, Mrs. George R. Bliven, and Miss Anna Wilcox attended the W. C. T. U. convention held at the Metho-dist church in Danielson.

Attended Putnem Institute, Schools were closed Friday. J. L. Chapman, Miss Frances Najako and Miss Isabelle White attended the teachers' convention in Putnam.

Various Items.

Various items.

Mrs. James Gerdner is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Long Stetson of Providence.

Miss Ellen Tracy of Putnam has been the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Warren Hopkins.

Mr. and Mrs. William Barber of Arcadia, R. I., formerly residents here, are guests at Mrs. Emma Baton's.

Rev. Joel S. Ives of Hartford spoke at the church Sunday morning on Home Missions.

Many hastened to the Elliott farm Saturday afternoon when the news quickly spread that a balloon had landed there.

The Centrals were defeated by the

The Centrals were defeated by the The Centrals were defeated by the Sterling nine Saturday afternoon.
Mrs. Albert C. Walker is spending a few weeks in New York.
The auction held at the home of George R. Fowler Tuesday and Wednesday was well attended by bargain seekers. George Gadbois and Albert C. Walker were auctioneers.
John Greanhalph seent Sunday in John Greenhalgh spent Sunday in Danielson at the home of Andrew Meech. Were in Norwich Wedgesday.

Mrs. Edwin H. Kennedy, Mrs. Flor-ence Mitchell, Mrs. Frank Tillinghast, Miss Sarah Card and Mrs. William Loring attended the King's Daughters' convention in Norwich Wednesday. Mrs. Harry D. Dean and Miss Alice Bennett of Moosup visited at William Deane's Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Craig of Dan-felson spent Sunday here with rela-

William Broadhead spent Saturday in Providence. Mrs, Henry Levalley spent Sunday Mrs. Thomas Shannon was in Willimantic aSturday attending the re-view of the Ladies of the Maccabees. Ernest Scott of Providence is spending a few days at G. R. Fowler's.

The Moosup grammar school nine will play the Central Juniors today (Saturday) in Barber's grounds. Garrett-Maynard Marriage. James Garrett and Miss Maynard of Moosup were married Monday morn-ing. Breakfast was served at the home of William Garrett.

Miss Mildred McStay has been Miss Bildred alcolary has been evisitor in Putnam.

Mrs. Peter Burke had a slight stroke of paralysis Sunday evening about 11 o'clock which affected one leg.

Mrs. Lydin Spicer is spending a week with relatives in North Scituate.

Nathaniel P. Thompson was in Willimantic Tuesday, attending the re-Library Renovation.

The library is being painted and papered and receiving a general cleaning. The new curtains were given by Albert C. Walker.

Mrs. Albert Gagne and baby have returned to their home in Woonsocket, R. I.

Joseph Robitaille of Woonsocket is visiting his parents. Mr. and Mrs.
Samuel Robitaille.
The King's Daughters met at their rooms Monday afternoon.
Frank H. Tillinghast spent Tuesday in Oinsyville. in Olneyville, Joseph Burton of Putnam was a vis-itor in town Thursday.

Running Two Shifts. The Central Worsted company has two sets of weavers. One set goes to work at 6 o'clock in the morning and works until 3 o'clock. The other set of men begin at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and finish at 12 o'clock at night, Alian Moffitt is the conductor on the Central and Mogann electric care eve-Central and Moosup electric cars eve-

WARRENVILLE.

School Observes Arbor and Bird Day. Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Scott spent last

Thursday in Manchester.

State Policeman M. S. Louke spent the week with his family in this vil-

Mrs. E. L. James and son, Roy, Mrs. lda E. Louks, Albert Louks and Mrs. G. C. Chappell were in Williamntic of business Saturday. Rev. G. C. Chappell was in Mont-ville inst Wednesday.

EKONK.

List of Farm Names, Owners or Tenants and Noteworthy Facts Co

ing Them.

Many of the larger and most thrifty farmers of the neighborhood have names for their farms; some have been so known for many years, and others are of recent orisin, since the R. F. D. arrangement of mails. The following list gives the name of the farm, followed by the owner or tenant, with an historic or traditional incident connected with the place:

Lafayette Spring farm, Clark Gallup; named from a splendid spring near the highway, from which General Lafayette in revolutionary times is said to have drunk.

Pike farm, Byron Young, General Lafayette spent a night in this house. Hill Top farm, John Prink, Franklin place, formerly, now known as Sunnyside, Thomas Brown.

White Spring farm, Albert Greens, Far View farm, Mrs. Ellen J. Frink, Highland farm, Charles Frink; the highest point of land around here. Highlest point of land around here. Highlest point of land around here, also for years known as The Boyn farm, because occupied by the bachelor brothers, Riljah and Isaac Gallup, who were always called The Hoya until they died as octogenarians. Shaves onto belonged to the farm, Edward S. Gallup.

Pharises Rock farm, Alfred Douglass place; also Gallup.

Ekonk Hill farm, A. A. Starsten.

Fairview farm, George H. Gallup.

Ekonk Hill farm, A. A. Starsten.

Fairview farm, George H. Gallup.

First Dow place, Erra A. Gallup. A select high school was for many years kept in one of the upper rooms of the house.

The Eider Dow place, Mrs. Anse

The Eider Dow place, Mrs. Anna Corey. For many years this was oc-cupied by the ministers of the partsh. Lily Lake farm, formerly called Hell Hollow. Wm. F. Schultz. Line Meeting House parsonage, Rev.

H. M. Rellogs.
Grange farm, owned by the Grange and containing their hall, formerly the Descon Keigwin place. Benjamin F. Phillips place and Balwin place,owned by E. Byron Gallup. Elm farm, formerly the Gordon place E. Byron Gallup. Campbell home, Benjamin F. Will-Tucker place, William Jarvis, Kettle place, Clark Congdon, Louden Brook farm, Willard Gard-

Balm of Gliend farm, George A Tanner. Campbell's Mills farm, James H. Green Valley farm, Horace Perkins.

Green Valley farm. Horace Parkins.
The Brookside, I. Cyrus Tanner.
River View farm, Waiter Tanner.
River View farm, Waiter Tanner.
Laurel Park, John C. Tanner.
Mount Misery, Albert Dawley,
Pine Grova, William H. Bitgood.
Sunny Side, Paimer Phillips.
Whiting Rock farm, Charles Brown.
The Old Brown place, Albert Brown.
Stony Lane farm, Hamilton Wilcox.
Lone Bock farm, Edward Pratt.
Pratt Brook farm, Edward Pratt.
The Gallup Homestead, formerly Money Hill farm, because of the tradition that a large amount of money was hidden on that hill in times of indan depredations. The late Nathaniel Gallup, now owned by A. W. Noone.
There is only one dupileate, two choosing the same name, Sunnyside, while several arise from springs, brooks, hills and trees. Several are named because of broad landscape.

Deer Enters Dooryard.

Deer Enters Dooryard. A very decile and tame deer appear-ed in the early morning in the door-yard of Alvin Corey and seemed re-

Percy Clark has moved his family from Oneco to the White house near the second cemetery.

EAST WOODSTOCK. Rev. E. H. Smith to Speak on Chinese Missions-Stephen Morse, 89, Plants Trees to Benefit Public.

Miss Maria Chandler is visiting by brother, Herman Chandler, and in Worcester, Undertaker L. E. Smith of Putnam was in town Tuesday, superintending the removal of the bodies of John Kennedy, Mrs. Kennedy and Miss Hat-lie Kennedy to Grove Street cemetery, Putnam. Mrs. Kennedy died twentysix years ago.

Mrs. H. M. Gifford spent Thursday and Friday in Webster with her daughter, Mrs. Clifford Jordan.

A. B. Bemis Is critically ill. His daughter Edith, of Greenfield, is home caring for him. Teacher Suffers from Ivy Poisoning. Bernice Turner is confined to the house, suffering from lvy poison, due to a May basket frolio last Friday evening. She was obliged to close her school in the "Neighborhood." Several her pupils are ill with whooping Mrs. Gray of New York and her infant daughter are spending several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Yetter.

Mrs. William May and sons, George and William, of Newton, Mass., spent Saturday and Sunday at Nathaniel Childs.

Rev. E. H. Smith to Speak. Rev. Edward H. Smith, missionery to China, will address the Ladies aux-iliary this (Seturday) afternoon at 2.30, and also speak at a union service Sunday at 1.30 p. m.

A Tree Planter at 89.

Stephen Morse, a prominent citizen here 35 years age, set swo long rows of maple trees bordering on the highway leading to Putnam; also on the road leading to New Britain, which at the present time are much enjoyed by people driving. Mr. Morse is now 89 years of age, and has just finished setting 1,000 pine seedings, and anticipatos doing the asmo each year as long as he lives, for the benefit of future generations.

Mr. Morse is unmarried and lives on the old homestead. His brother, Nelson, living in North Woodstock, has just passed his 91st birthday, Both men are remarkably well preserved. A Tree Planter at 89.

Alian Moffitt is the conductor on the Central and Moosup electric cars evenings.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Thompson of Leominster, Mass., have been visiting at Mrs. Vassar's.

Duncan McDonald is slowly improving at the Eaclus hospital in Norwich.

Mr. Hazen of Medway, Mass., spent Sunday at Everett Richmond's.

The Central baseball team went to Coventry, R. I., to play ball Sunday. They were defeated.

Deacon Henry C. Torrey of South-bridge, Mass., is visiting his daughter.

Mrs. Charles A. Byles.

Miss Blanche Caplette has returned from Putnam, where she has been visiting at the home of her grandfather, James Wilcox celebrated his 57th birthday Wednesday.

Mrs. Andrew Wholey of Norwich has been the guest of relatives here.

Mr. Ramsden is the new boss finisher at the Central Worsted company's mill.

The Ladies of the G. A. R. heid their monthly meeting in Barber's hall Friday.

Mrs. E. L. Kenyon was in Greene Tuesday, and called on Mrs. Mary E. Colvin Percy Clark moved Wednesday to the Prudence Gorden farm, two miles south of the village.

The Josiah Slade farm has been sold, and the purchasers have moved